

Program Narrative

- Project objectives linked to meaningful and measurable outcomes consistent with goals of Recovery Act, and the likelihood of achieving such outcomes.
 - Organization capabilities and competencies, include a description of how organization will track all drawdowns and grant expenditures separately from other federal funding.
 - Activities that can be started and completed quickly, that maximizes job creation and economic benefits.
 - Timeline or project plan identifying when the goals and objectives will be completed.
 - Performance measures established by the organization to assess if grant objectives are met.
-